

ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

I. Policy Statement

LONGi Green Energy Technology Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "LONGi") is committed to its core values of "Reliability, Value-add, and Fulfillment" and follows a development model that equally emphasizes both commercial value and social responsibility. The company is dedicated to upholding the highest standards of ethics and integrity in its global operations. We maintain a strict "zero tolerance" policy towards corruption and are committed to fully complying with anti-corruption laws and regulations in all regions where we operate. LONGi is determined to prevent any form of corruption and to conduct all business dealings with our partners and government entities with integrity, transparency, and full compliance with applicable laws.

II. Scope of Application

This policy applies to all members of the Board of Directors, management, and employees of LONGi, as well as all employees of its subsidiaries, branches, and affiliates, including outsourced staff, part-time employees, and interns.

We also encourage suppliers, distributors, contractors, partners, and other stakeholders who do business with the company to actively comply with this policy.

III. Definition of Corrupt Practices

Corrupt practices refer to actions, whether by internal or external individuals, that involve the use of improper means to obtain personal benefits at the expense of the company's financial interests, or to secure inappropriate financial gains for the company, which may also result in personal advantages for the individuals involved.

IV. Anti-Corruption Laws and Regulations

The applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations include, but are not limited to, the Criminal Law of the People's Republic of China, the Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the People's Republic of China, and any relevant anti-corruption laws and regulations enacted in the countries or regions where our business partners are located. All employees of the company must comply with these laws and regulations.

V. Anti-Corruption Policy

LONGi is committed to conducting its business with integrity and honesty, strictly adhering to applicable laws and regulations to support the company's sustainable development. All employees are prohibited from engaging in any form of corruption. Specifically, the following behaviors are strictly forbidden:

1. Employees using company authority, resources, or assets for personal gain or misappropriating company property for improper benefits.
2. Employees soliciting or accepting gifts or benefits from others to gain unfair personal advantage.
3. Employees offering gifts or benefits to others to secure improper advantages in business transactions.
4. Employees using improper methods to obtain or disclose company trade secrets, causing financial harm.
5. Employees forging or trading company documents, certificates, or seals for personal benefit.
6. Employees providing false information, contracts, or documents to the company, clients, or stakeholders to gain personal advantage or cause financial loss.
7. Employees colluding with suppliers during procurement or bidding processes to manipulate bids, disclose confidential pricing, or engage in other unfair practices.
8. Any actions that violate laws, regulations, or company policies, or that compromise integrity, fairness, or fair competition.

VI. Suppliers and Partners

LONGi expects its suppliers, distributors, contractors, partners, and other stakeholders to align with the company's values and this policy. We encourage them to comply with applicable laws and regulations during our collaboration and to adopt principles similar to those of LONGi in areas such as anti-corruption and fair competition.

VII. Anti-Corruption Training

All employees of LONGi including outsourced staff, part-time workers, and interns, are required to complete annual anti-corruption training and sign the Code of Integrity Commitment, acknowledging their understanding and compliance with the anti-corruption policies and procedures outlined in this document.

Suppliers, distributors, contractors, and partners engaged in business with the company must also participate in anti-corruption training organized by LONGi. Additionally, they are required to sign the Supplier Code of Conduct to confirm their commitment to understanding and adhering to the company's anti-corruption policies, ensuring a collaborative environment built on integrity and transparency.

VIII. Reporting and Whistleblowing

1. Principles

LONGi encourages employees to report misconduct in good faith and guarantees strict confidentiality for both the whistleblower and the information provided. All reports of improper behavior will be investigated by the designated department. Those handling the report—whether in receiving, reviewing, or investigating—are prohibited from disclosing the whistleblower's identity or contact information. This information must not be shared with the department or individuals under investigation. Any violation of this confidentiality will result in severe disciplinary action.

2. Rewards and Disciplinary Actions

LONGi will reward whistleblowers with a one-time monetary incentive ranging from RMB 1,000 to RMB 30,000, based on the relevance of the evidence provided, the accuracy of the report, the whistleblower's cooperation during the investigation, and the extent to which losses are mitigated.

Whistleblowers must ensure their reports are truthful and based on facts. They are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide and must not fabricate details, make false accusations, or harm the company or other employees' legal rights. Any individual who makes malicious or false reports will face appropriate actions, and internal employees will be subject to disciplinary measures in accordance with the company's policies.

3. Reporting Channels

- (1) 'LONGi Integrity' WeChat applet
- (2) 'LONGi Audit' WeChat official account
- (3) Phone: +86-029-84193391, 18089282003
- (4) Email: audit@longi.com

- (5) Mail or In-person Complaints: Audit and Supervision Center, LONGi Green Energy Technology Co., Ltd., 8369 Shangyuan Road, Economic and Technological Development Zone, Weiyang District, Xi'an, Shaanxi, China

IX. Consequences of Violations and Disciplinary Action

Employees who violate this policy or any applicable laws and regulations will face disciplinary action based on the nature and severity of the violation. For serious breaches, the company may terminate the employee's contract. Employees suspected of engaging in illegal or criminal activities will be held legally accountable.

X. Record Retention and Internal Audits

All employees must retain records of financial transactions in accordance with the company's financial and internal control policies, as well as generally accepted practices. Business-related expenses and reimbursements must be submitted in line with the company's relevant policies, with clear documentation of their purpose.

Additionally, LONGi will conduct annual audits targeting high-risk areas and personnel to detect any corrupt practices. Employees found guilty of misconduct will face appropriate disciplinary actions, and the audit results will be shared periodically.

XI. Implementation and Interpretation

To ensure compliance with this policy, LONGi's Audit and Supervision Center is responsible for overseeing its implementation. Employees are expected to fully cooperate with audits and investigations.

This policy is interpreted and revised by LONGi. The company may update the policy periodically in response to changes in domestic and international laws, regulations, policies, regulatory requirements, and industry trends.

